
REAL ALES

Our commitment to good beer is recognised in the Good Beer Guide 2019 – if you see something interesting, but aren't sure, please ask for a sample! The quality is guaranteed by Cask Marque, and we support local brewers through Camra's LocAle scheme.

Timothy Taylor “Landlord” (West Yorkshire) 4.3%

Back by popular demand... this classic strong pale ale has won more awards nationally than any other beer and is four-time champion at the Brewers' International Exhibition. £4.40

Flack Manor Brewery “Flack Catcher” (Hampshire) 4.4%

A clean distinctive rich golden ale with an initial sweetness smoothly spiced with a crisp bitter finish leading to an old fashioned zesty linger. £4.30

Ringwood Brewery “Razorback” (Hampshire) 3.6%

An ideal balance of hoppy happiness and tangy citrus, our classic Razorback is plenty refreshing to hit the spot. £3.90

Eagle Brewery “Parallax IPA” (Bedfordshire) 4.5%

Fruity hops mixed with subtle sweet malts and a robust bitterness. Pale amber in colour, dry and refreshing. £4.30

CRAFT BEER AND CIDER

Hoegaarden (Belgium) 4.9% Aromatic, citrusy wheat beer, cloudy in appearance with distinctive notes of coriander and orange peel. £3.95 (330ml bottle)

Affligem Blonde (Belgium) 6.8% A fruity, strong golden ale with aromatics of pear and bread malt. A beer to be savoured, great with food. £2.80 (half pint)

Three Hop Craft Lager (Caledonian Brewery, Edinburgh) 4.5% A trio of European hops and east coast malt combine to create a full-flavoured lager. £2.40 (half pint)

Adnams Dry Hopped Lager (Suffolk) 4.2% Pure, clean, refreshing, very aromatic. Gold winner at the International Beer Challenge. £3.95 (330ml bottle)
